2020 Ryder Cup

Enjoy two grounds passes for Saturday's competition and Sunday's final rounds (September 26-27, 2020) of the 43rd Ryder Cup in Wisconsin at Whistling Straits Golf Course in Kohler, Wisconsin.

Arguably the greatest championship course in the United States, The Straits at Whistling Straits has hosted the 2004, 2010 and 2015 PGA Championships and the 2007 U.S. Senior Open. In 2020, The Straits at Whistling Straits will become the first public course to host the Ryder Cup in 29 years. The Straits, a Pete Dye designed course, is sculpted along two miles of dramatically rugged, bunker-riddled Lake Michigan shoreline.

The 2018 Ryder Cup was dramatic for a short while during the Sunday singles matches, but in the end, Europe rolled to a clear 17.5-10.5 victory after entering the day leading 10-6. The United States team certainly made the hosts earn the victory with a downhill string of early points and half points, but in a flurry at the end, the Euros took back the trophy after losing it in 2016 and kept the U.S. from winning on European soil for the first time since 1993.

Hotel Accommodations

Enjoy a 3-night stay (check in Friday, September 25; check out Monday, September 28, 2020) in a standard guest room in a Milwaukee area hotel. This package includes event transfers from your hotel to the course (Saturday and Sunday).
